DCSE Manual Transmittal
Letter No. 451
March 16, 1997

TO: Staff, Division of Child Support Enforcement

SUBJECT: Revised Notice to Transportation Cabinet (Form CS-63), Notice of Monthly Support Obligation (Form CS-66), General Testimony for URESA (Form CS-98), Paternity Affidavit (Form CS-99) Uniform Support Petition (Form CS-100.1 and CS-100.2), Child Support Enforcement Transmittal (Form CS-103.1 and CS-103.2), Parental Custodial Parent Information Request (Form CS-133), Health Insurance Information Request (Form CS-136) and Procedural Instructions

Revised Procedural Instructions for the Notice of Intent to Request Denial or Suspension of DL (Form CS-44) and Statement of Income and Resources (Form CS-65)

The forms and procedural instructions listed above have been revised to change noncustodial parent to noncustodial parent or obligor. The terminology has been changed because of situations involving split custody. When custody is split, neither parent is considered to be a noncustodial parent. The term obligor has been added to refer to the parent for whom a support obligation exists in a split custody case.

References to AFDC and non-AFDC have been changed to K-TAP and non-K-TAP. Also, references to client have been changed to custodial parent and references to Cabinet for Human Resources (CHR) have been changed to Cabinet for Families and Children (CFC).

Procedural instructions for the CS-103 have also been revised to delete references to the Interstate Enforcement Unit (IEU) because
